The insurance sgents who were called on say that Mr. Cilles visited the various offices where he was insured before eight o'clock yesterday morning and demanded the amount of his insurance, and was disappointed that he did not get a check for it. It is probable that the companies will contest the case before paying any insurance whatever on the property. Allogether the insurance aggregates $16,810.

ELIZA CHYMBLE - Concerning this

ELIZA CRYMBLE.—Concerning this misguided girl, who is now suffering the consequences of her own folly, and whose romantic story we published yesterday, the Bellaire Independent of last evening has the following particulars:

Her parents live in an unpretentions cabin on the line of the St. Clairsville Narrow Guage Railroad, and she returned to them asking that she might be forgiven, and be permitted to remain in her parental home again. Her father and mother, after listening to the sorrowful story of their once beautiful and healthy daughter, and seeing her haggard, half crazed appearance could not refuse, and she is now safely domiciled with them in their little home near St. Clairsville. The whereabouts of the man is not known to any one in this neighborhood, but Miss whereabouts of the man is not known to any one in this neighborhood, but Miss Crymble is at home with her parents liv-ing comfortably, a sadder and a wises woman than before. She is 21 years of age, with long, flowing black hair and a beautiful form.

THE NORTH WHEELING REPUBLICANS.— The Republicans of Washington district

The North Wheelman Arrevandar. The Republicans of Washington district met last night at the Vigilant engine house and perfected the organization of their Garfield and Arthur club, by making James Roberts President, Charles P. In our advertising columns this morning will be found a notice of the dissolution of the firm of Dirst & Kober, and of the formation of a new firm as its successor, under the style of Kober & Krauter. Mr. Theo. Kober has long been identified with the produce business, and is favorably known as an honest and energetic business man. Mr. Earnest Krauter has for many years been connected with the grocery house of Mr. H. F. Behrens, and has had many years experience in the business and is an upright and enterprising business man. The firm is deserving of the largest measure of success, and will no doubt meet with it.
